Quixotic quite obviously correctly denotes any illusions that the hill should stand forever isolated. Yet for 143 years this solemn square of high intent has weathered the academic seasons of change, a mighty Georgia oak firmly rooted in rectangular solitude. Now progress presses down upon the Hill with winds of change foretelling not the end, but regeneration. This catalytic breeze suggests of metamorphosis, the revelation of new life beyond the Hill.

Umbra: The shadow of the Oak afforded men of many eras cooling relief from the heat of destruction ignorance. But now, like its human progeny who sprout, bud, grow, and then after four years go forth into the world. The Oak, to provide a fuller range of learning, has dropped two acorns off the Hill: The Sunny Gables School of Nursing and The Fine Arts Center.

Accretions to this Oak they shall become. In destroying its foursquare symmetry, these additions hearald the nativity in a new triad of scholasticism and range of service. Thus two saplings of the Oak promise growth and progress in pursuing its goal, the fulfillment of the needs of man.

ΦM

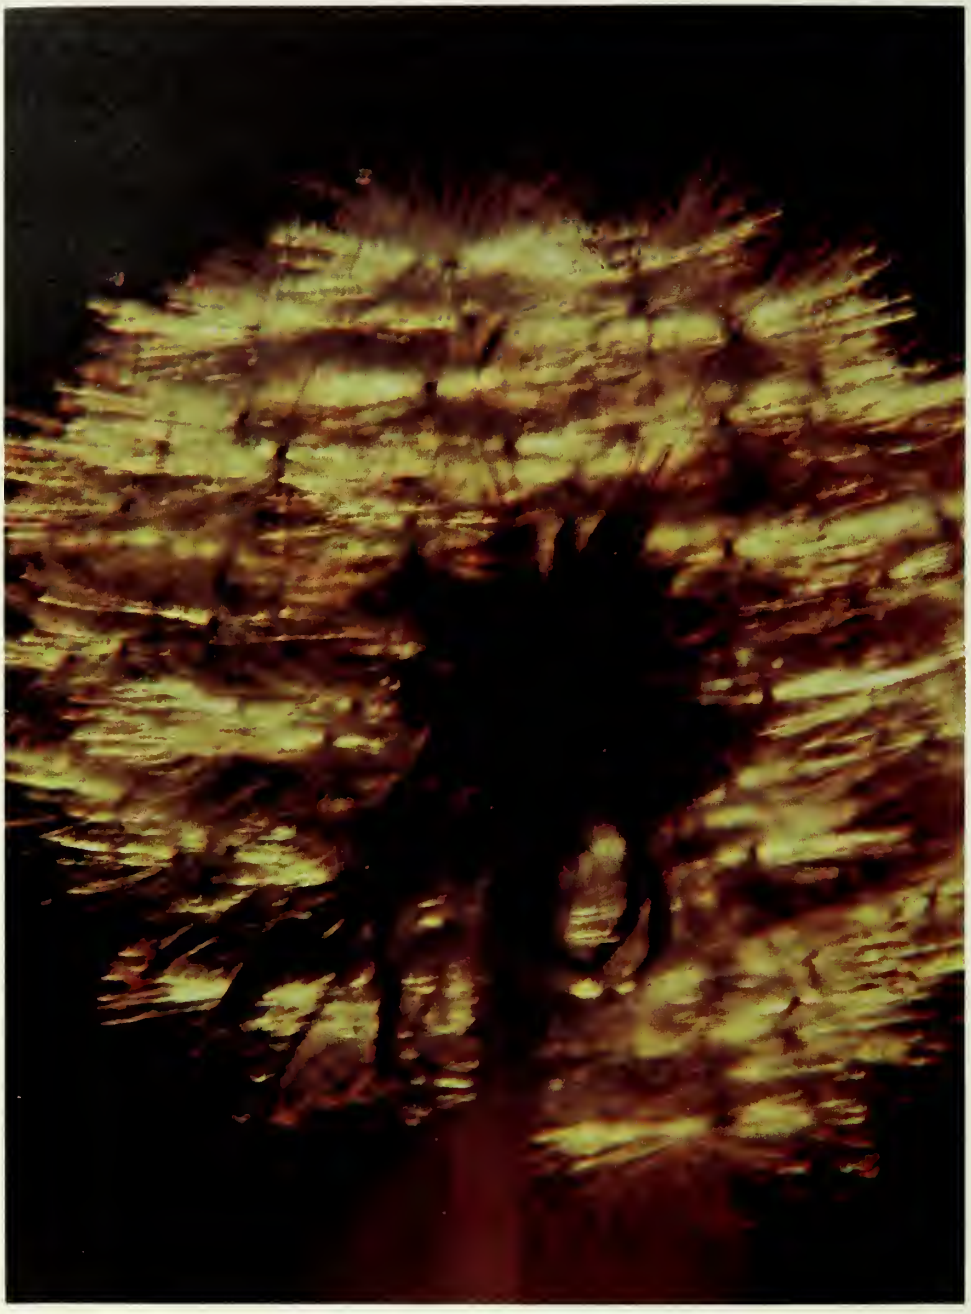

Death is not implied in the passing of the square, for it lives and sees its budding life expanded beyond the hill. It stands and shall continue to exist, but no longer stands alone. The Oak, solid as ever, inspires its students to greater knowledge of themselves, the manifold works of God, and their fellow man — the precepts of the QUAD

A NEW HOME FOR A NEW PROGRAM

This magnificent structure, situated one block from the main campus, was recently acquired with Margin of Distinction Funds. Beginning with the Fall Quarter, 1974, it will house the LaGrange College Division of Nursing.

The Margin of Distinction is a 9-Year, $9 million fund raising campaign launched in 1969. To date, nearly $7 million has been received.

LaGrange College remains eternally grateful to its many friends and benefactors.

1974 QUADRANGLE DEDICATION MAY 3, 1974

This years dedication goes to a fine man we have all known, Al Mariotti, Georgia Intercollegiate Conference "coach of the year" for the past three seasons and veteran of 34 years of scholastic and collegiate coaching.

LaGrange College's "Bald Eagle" said that he has asked President Waights G. Henry to relieve him of coaching responsibilities at the close of the 1974 basketball season.

Dr. Henry said he accepted Mariotti's resignation "with deepest regret but with appreciation for a job well done. He had endeared himself to students and alumni who identify Panther basketball with Coach Mariotti and we are happy that he will continue to teach as an associate professor of health and physical education."

The 60-year-old Mariotti came to the small liberal arts college in 1962 after 17 years at LaGrange High School. Now in his twelfth season on "the Hill," he has coached the LC cagers to 169 wins and 135 losses to date.

The LC mentor has had only three losing seasons and his last three teams compiled a 64-25 mark while breaking school records for wins and scoring. While capturing the college's first GIC title in 1973, the Panthers won 17 consecutive games and finished with a 23-8 record.

The highly respected coach, a native of Rome, Italy, who grew up in Youngstown, O., came South to play football and basketball at Newberry (S.C.) College. He earned three letters in each sport and captained the football team before earning his degree in 1938.

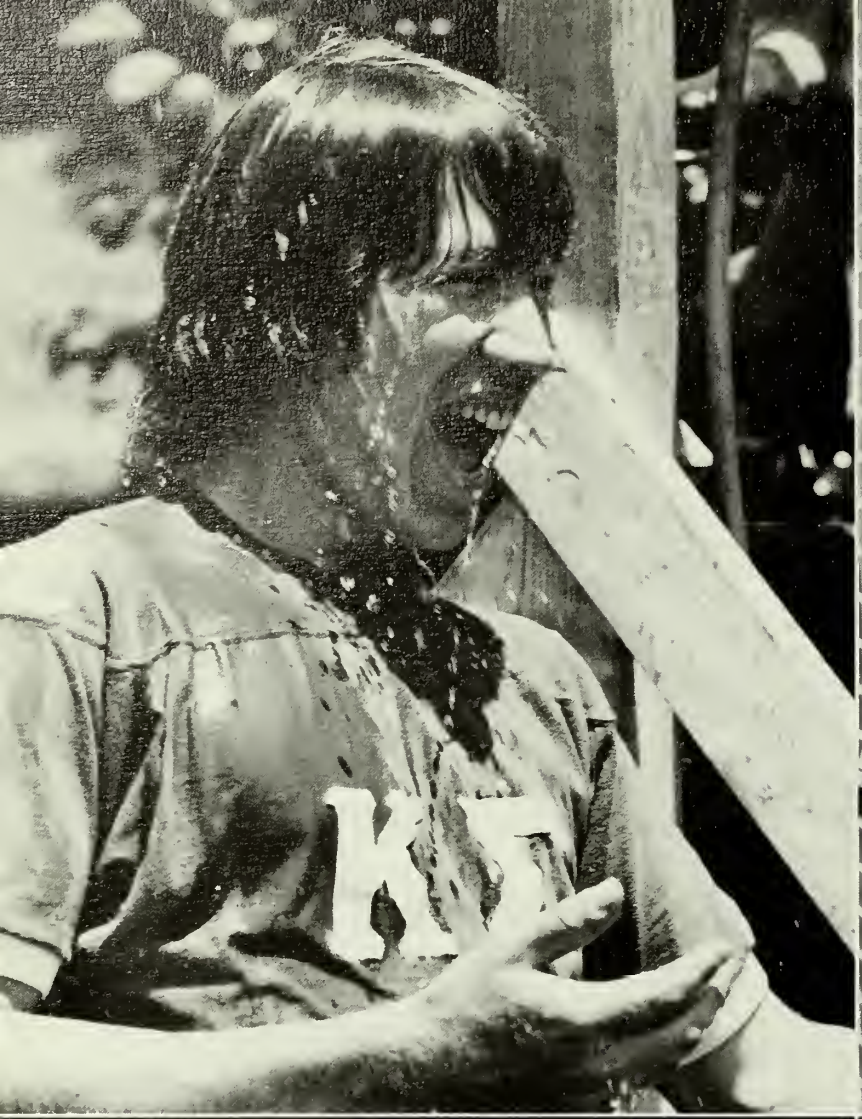

On this particular day not only was the dedication given to Al Mariotti but it was his birthday too! It was a big surprise for him and a very nice one. The "Bald Eagle" will live forever.

Quixotic quite obviously correctly denotes all illusions that the hill should not stand alone forever. Time bespeaks of metamorphosis and goes on to bring change foretelling not the end, but regeneration. Take advantage of this for you only live once. Time is passing. We are forever branching out in different directions looking for better things. Inspire yourself to greater knowledge, the works of God and your fellow man.

IN CLOSING:

Whenever anyone attempts a publication as demanding as the QUADRANGLE he accepts many problems and responsibilities. An Editor cannot determine what everyone would like or wish to be included in the QUADRANGLE; he can only hope that the judgement of both himself and his staff will be appreciated and enjoyed by the LaGrange student. My primary goal this year was to cover as many events that are memorable about LaGrange 1974 as possible.

Attribute any mispelling of your name to the printing company. Everything was perfect when we sent it in of course. I have been fortunate and thankful to have worked with a group that is as talented and industrious as this staff is. Concerning others not composing the QUAD student staff, I wish to thank them for their concern and genuine interest.

It was quite an experience, and I enjoyed nearly every minute of it. I hope you enjoy the book as well as I did.

Bill Gilmore

CONCERNING THE BOOK

The 1974 edition of the QUADRANGLE was printed by the offset lithography process by Hunter Publishing Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The book is printed on 90 lb. semi-gloss enamel paper. Endsheets are 65 lb. special endleaf stock. Ink used was brown-black and black for directory and advertising. Headlines are 20 pt. Melior, copy 10 pt. Melior. Design lettering was from Formatt and Letraset.

Cover design and division pages by Bill Gilmore. The cover has been rubbed over with a brown-black ink to give it an antique appearance. The cover also has a slight grain to pick up the overtone of the overrub.
